Daily Bulletin Reminder

LEADS Regulations and Policies stipulate that all LEADS terminal agencies will be held responsible for knowledge of and compliance with ALL information and instructions promulgated through the LEADS Daily Bulletin. Your agency must have a system in place to ensure that all LEADS users (telecommunicators, officers, detectives, clerical staff, jailers, other agencies you provide LEADS information for, etc.) read and understand the Daily Bulletin content. A digital record is acceptable, but must be made available/provided upon the request of LEADS Administration staff.

The Daily Bulletin must be retained for a minimum of one (1) year.

Information published in the LEADS Daily Bulletin quite often pertains to and is of interest to mobile data computer (MDC) agencies. If your agency provides service for a MDC only agency, you must ensure a copy of the Daily Bulletin is forwarded to them. You may also provide the non-terminal agency the link to the LEADS Daily Bulletin, but a record of the personnel reading the Dialy Bulletins must be maintained by the LEADS Agency Coordinator (LAC). You are encouraged to share the website address with the MDC agencies, https://isp.illinois.gov/LawEnforcement/DailyBulletin
