NCIC Violent Person File Webinar

Beginning April 2024, the NCIC training team will be offering a monthly one-hour webinar on NCIC Violent Person File (VPF). The VPF contains records of individuals who have been convicted of violent crimes, or have made credible threats, against law enforcement and individuals who have been convicted of certain other violent crimes.

The training will cover the importance of utilizing the VPF, along with specific entry criteria, VPF retention period and how to handle inquires and responses. The VPF all state training will be hosted by the FBI on Microsoft Teams and will be limited to 275 participants.
