PA 100-0906 - Extension of FOID/CCL Expiration Dates

Effective January 1, 2019, Public Act 100-0906 was signed into law amending the Firearm Owners Identification (FOID) Act. One of these amendments allows for a FOID Card Renewal Application to extend the expiration date of the current FOID card. If the FOID renewal application is received prior to the expiration date, the status of the current FOID card will remain in an ACTIVE status for 60 business days beyond the expiration date allowing the Firearms Services Bureau (FSB) time to processes the renewal application.

(430 ILCS 65/5) (from Ch. 38, par. 83-5)
Sec. 5. Application and renewal.
(b) Renewal applications shall be approved or denied within 60 business days, provided the applicant submitted his or her renewal application prior to the expiration of his or her Firearm Owner's Identification Card. If a renewal application has been submitted prior to the expiration date of the applicant's Firearm Owner's Identification Card, the Firearm Owner's Identification Card shall remain valid while the Department processes the application, unless the person is subject to or becomes subject to revocation under this Act. The cost for a renewal application shall be $10 which shall be deposited into the State Police Firearm Services Fund.
