

Appropriate Usage Notification

This software program contains criminal justice information, and is for authorized use only. Users of this software program have no explicit or implicit expectation of privacy. Any or all users of this software program and all transactions and queries on this software program may be intercepted, monitored, recorded, copied, audited, inspected and disclosed to authorized entities. By signing in to this software program, the user consents to such interception, monitoring, recording, copying, auditing, inspection and disclosure at the discretion of authorized entities. Unauthorized or improper use of this software program and/or its data may result in administrative and/or disciplinary action which may also include civil and/or criminal penalties. By signing in to this software program you indicate your awareness of and consent to these terms and conditions of use.