Illinois State Police Investigating Death of Barricaded Subject in Decatur

DECATUR – The Illinois State Police (ISP) assisted the Macon County Sheriff's Office with an armed, barricaded subject, ending in an apparent self-inflicted gunshot wound in Decatur.

On July 10, 2026, at approximately 6:30 p.m., officers responded to a residence in the 600 block of Wyckles Road in Decatur for an armed barricaded subject that was involved in an incident earlier in the day. After hearing a single gunshot from within the residence, officers made entry and found a deceased individual in the residence with an apparent self-inflicted gunshot wound. There is no risk to the public.

This is an ongoing investigation and no additional information is available at this time.
