Illinois State Police Arrest South Holland Teen Following Road Rage Shooting on the Bishop Ford Expressway

CHICAGO – Illinois State Police (ISP) Division of Criminal Investigation Zone 1 Special Agents arrested 19-year-old Jacob L. Hill of South Holland, Illinois following a road rage incident that escalated into a shooting on I-94.

On November 12, 2026, at approximately 6:38 p.m., ISP Troopers responded to an expressway shooting on the Bishop Ford Expressway, I-94 eastbound at 130th Street. Multiple shots were fired from one vehicle at another during a road rage incident, and the suspect vehicle fled the scene. No injuries were reported. ISP shared suspect vehicle information with local police departments.

On November 13, 2026, the Indiana State Police located the vehicle and identified Hill as the driver. ISP continued their investigation and identified Hill as the same suspect from the shooting.

On November 17, 2026, Hill turned himself in. ISP presented the case to the Cook County State's Attorney's Office, and he was charged with Aggravated Discharge of a Firearm (Class 1 Felony). He remains in custody pending his first court appearance. No further information is available.

ISP reminds the public that when it comes to aggressive driving, don't lose your temper or your life. Road Rage. Don't Engage. If you are the victim of road rage or believe a driver is following or harassing you, call 911 and/or go to the nearest police department to report it. For more information about how to avoid road rage or ISP's "Road Rage. Don't Engage." campaign, visit the ISP website at: https://isp.illinois.gov/TrafficSafety/RoadRage.

Jacob L. Hill (M/19)

The charge is not evidence against the defendant, and the defendant is presumed innocent until proven guilty beyond a reasonable doubt in a court of law.
