Illinois State Police Arrests Chicago Woman for Reckless Homicide after Fatal Crash on I-94 Leaves Two Dead

CHICAGO – Illinois State Police (ISP) Division of Criminal Investigation Zone 1 Special Agents arrested 25-year-old Alisia A. Agnew of Chicago, IL following a deadly crash on the Bishop Ford Expressway.

On February 19, 2026, at approximately 1:15 a.m., ISP Troopers responded to a crash on the 111th Street Ramp to I-94 northbound in Chicago. Agnew was driving a Chevrolet truck when it left the roadway, struck a light post, and rolled over. Three people were ejected from the truck. Upon arrival, Troopers provided CPR to two of the occupants. Two of the passengers died on scene. Agnew and two other passengers were transported to an area hospital with injuries.

On November 18, 2026, ISP presented the case to the Cook County State's Attorney's Office, which approved two counts of Reckless Homicide (Class 3 Felony), two counts of Aggravated Driving Under the Influence Involving Death (Class 2 Felony), and one count of Aggravated Driving Under the Influence causing Great Bodily Harm. ISP Special Agents arrested Agnew at her residence and transported her to Cook County Jail, where she remained in custody pending her first court appearance. There is no further information.

Alisia A. Agnew (F/25)

The charges are not evidence against the defendant, and the defendant is presumed innocent until proven guilty beyond a reasonable doubt in a court of law.
