Illinois State Police Seeking Family and Next of Kin Assistance in Heights Crematory Investigation

CHICAGO – As part of its ongoing investigation into potential violations committed at Heights Crematory located at 230 E. 11th Street in Chicago Heights, the Illinois State Police (ISP) is seeking to establish contact with family members and next of kin for remains found at the business.

ISP is still attempting to contact some of the families and next of kin as part of that investigation and is sending letters requesting their assistance. If you are a family member and next of kin of an individual whose remains were processed for cremation through Heights Crematory between August 1, 2024 and March 31, 2025, and have received a letter or have information about the deceased, please contact ISP.

- Phone – (847) 294-4400
- Submit information online by clicking here.

ISP appreciates assistance from family and next of kin during this ongoing investigation.
