ILLINOIS STATE POLICE ARRESTS CHICAGO HEIGHTS MAN FOR AGGRAVATED DRIVING UNDER THE INFLUENCE

CHICAGO – The Illinois State Police (ISP) Division of Criminal Investigation Zone 1 arrested 23-year-old Javier Segura of Chicago Heights, IL for two counts of Aggravated Driving Under the Influence Causing Great Bodily Harm (Class 4 Felony).

On March 18, 2024 at approximately 4:12 a.m., ISP Troop 3 responded to a crash involving a wrong way driver on Interstate 55 northbound at Interstate 94 in Cook County. A silver Jeep was traveling on Interstate 55 southbound in the northbound lanes and struck a gray Chevrolet truck. The driver of the Jeep, Javier Segura, and the driver of the Chevrolet were both transported to an area hospital with injuries.

On April 23, 2024, ISP agents took Segura into custody and the Cook County State's Attorney's Office approved the above charge against Segura. Segura is being held pending a detention hearing.

Javier Segura (M/23)

The public is reminded that all persons are presumed innocent until proven guilty in a court of law.
