INTRODUCTION

This Executive Summary of the Crime in Illinois 2005, Annual Uniform Crime Report, is intended to provide readers with a high-level overview of the nature of crime in Illinois. This summary highlights statewide statistics and topics of interest. Detailed statistics and analyses are contained in the complete Crime in Illinois 2005, Annual Uniform Crime Report, which is available via the internet through the Illinois State Police website at <http://www.isp.state.il.us>.

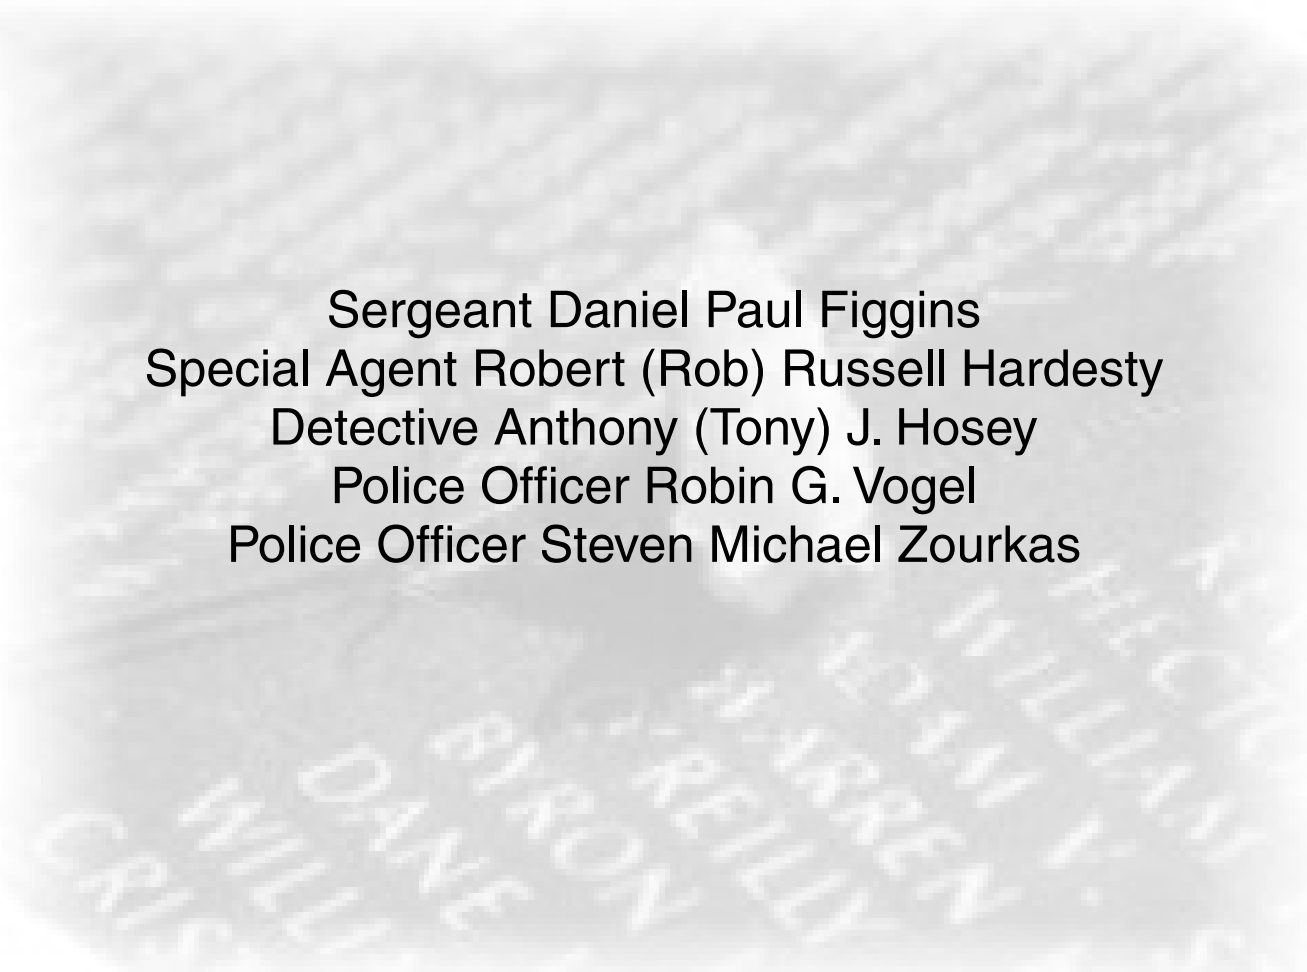

During 2005, 966 agencies submitted data directly to the Illinois Uniform Crime Reporting (I-UCR) Program. The remaining agencies reported their crime statistics through an intermediary agency (sheriff's office, police department, etc.). A complete listing of agencies that participated and their respective extent of participation is available in the complete publication.

Local law enforcement agencies are mandated by Chapter 20 of the Illinois Compiled Statutes, 2630/8, to report crime index offenses, crime index offense arrests, and drug arrests. The 2004 figures may not reflect the figures published in Crime in Illinois 2004 due to submission of late and/or adjusted data.

DEDICATION

This report is dedicated to all law enforcement officers, and in particular, to those police officers who lost their lives during the past year in the performance of duty while upholding the laws of the state of Illinois.

CORE BASED STATISTICAL AREAS

The United States Office of Management and Budget developed new standards to define Core Based Statistical Areas (CBSAs) beginning in 2003. These standards replace and supersede the 1990 standards for defining Metropolitan Statistical Areas.

CBSAs are defined as a statistical geographic entity consisting of the county or counties associated with at least one core (urbanized area or urban cluster) of at least 10,000 population, plus adjacent counties having a high degree of social and economic integration with the core as measured through commuting ties with the counties containing the core. The new standards designate and define two categories of CBSAs: Metropolitan Statistical Areas and Micropolitan Statistical Areas. These are the terms used for the basic set of county-based areas as defined under this classification.

Metropolitan Statistical Areas have at least one urbanized area of 50,000 or more population, plus adjacent territory that has a high degree of social and economic integration with the core as measured by commuting ties. Micropolitan Statistical Areas—a new set of statistical areas—have at least one urban cluster of at least 10,000 but less than 50,000 population, plus adjacent territory that has a high degree of social and economic integration with the core as measured by commuting ties. If the specified criteria are met, a Metropolitan Statistical Area containing a single core with a population of 2.5 million or more may be subdivided to form smaller groupings of counties referred to as Metropolitan Divisions. Counties that do not fall within CBSAs represent Outside Core Based Statistical Areas.

There are 11 Metropolitan Statistical Areas that include 36 counties in Illinois. Inhabitants of the Metropolitan Statistical Areas account for 86.7 percent of the state’s population and 90.5 percent of the Illinois crime index offenses. There are 23 Micropolitan Statistical Areas that include 29 counties in Illinois. Inhabitants of the Micropolitan Statistical Areas account for 8.4 percent of the state’s population and 7.0 percent of the Illinois crime index offenses. There are 37 counties that comprise the Outside Core Based Statistical Areas in Illinois. Inhabitants of the Outside Core Based Statistical Areas account for 4.9 percent of the state’s population and 2.5 percent of the Illinois crime index offenses. In some cases the percentages may not sum to 100 due to rounding.

Six of Illinois’ Metropolitan and Micropolitan Statistical Areas are part of areas in Indiana, Iowa, Kentucky, Missouri, and Wisconsin. Areas outside of Illinois are not represented in the statistics presented here.

SUPPLEMENTAL DATA

In April 1996, the I-UCR Program began collecting additional crime information. This data includes statistics pertaining to offenses mandated by state statutes and offenses concerning children. Due to limitations of agencies' reporting systems, all agencies are not included in the totals presented in the following tables. In some cases, the percentages may not sum to 100 due to rounding.

DOMESTIC CRIMES

Reporting domestic violence is mandated by Chapter 20 of the Illinois Compiled Statutes, 2630/5.1. Domestic-related crimes are defined as crimes committed by family or household members, including spouses, former spouses, parents, children, stepchildren and other persons related by blood or marriage, persons who share or formerly shared a common dwelling, and persons who have or allegedly have a child in common. In the case of a high-risk adult with disabilities, family or household member includes any person who has the responsibility for that individual as a result of a family relationship, or who has assumed responsibility for all or a portion of the care voluntarily, by express or implied contract, or court order.

Summary

There were 115,282 domestic violence offenses reported to the I-UCR Program this year, an average of 315 each day, or one every 4 minutes and 33 seconds. This is a 6.1 percent decrease from the 122,797 domestic violence offenses reported last year. The domestic violence offense rate is 906.8 per 100,000 inhabitants.

Contributing agencies are not required to report this data to the I-UCR Program. All crimes reported by participating agencies that involve victims aged 16 years and younger are included in this category.

Summary
